Green Building Committee
Membership At-A-Glance

Benefits:
- Develop personal, professional and leadership skills
- Network with ABC staff, members and volunteers
- Guide the National Association in delivering high-quality services and resources to ABC members and chapters

Eligibility Requirements:
- Active ABC chapter membership at time of application and throughout entire term
- Expertise in green building and sustainability

Scope:	The Committee supports the ABC strategic goal to establish ABC's members as the "world class" standard for health, safety and environment in the construction industry. It provides resources and education to ABC members to support their customers and thrive in the green building industry.
Strategic Goal:	Establish ABC's members as the "world class" standard for health, safety and environment in the construction industry.
Values:	- Innovation and creativity - Commitment to protecting the environment - Modeling the concept of partnering, seeking opportunities when possible - Action-oriented - Accountability - Collaboration and inclusivity
Duties	- Regularly attend meetings and show commitment - Participate in decision-making - Respect and support the majority decisions of the Committee - Approach all Committee issues with an open mind, prepared to make the best decisions for everyone involved
Preferred Background	- Previous attendance at ABC meetings and events - Strong understanding of ABC National's strategic goals - Familiarity with the green building industry and sustainability
Time Commitment:	- Minimum one-year term subject to reappointment - Three in-person Committee meetings in conjunction with ABC winter, spring and fall conferences - A minimum of nine conference calls per year - Time to perform Committee assignments

For more information or to sign up for a committee, visit www.abc.org/volunteer.